To Advertisers.—The VERMONT DAILY TRANSCRIPT has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and, on that account, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrifield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

PERSONAL.—We notice that our young friend Mr. Stephen B. Anderson, who has filled the important position of chief clerk in the wholesale store of Brainerd Bros., in this town for the last year, has retired from that position and has joined Mr. J. J. Burgess as a partner in the sale of flour, groceries, &c. Success to the new business house.

PLEASURES.—A dance came of last night at Music Hall, on Lake Street, of which Messrs. Downing & Steere are the proprietors, with 40 couples in attendance. Everything went merrily as usual.

LEGISLATIVE.—On account of the pressure of other matters to-day we are compelled to omit the publication of our usual Legislative reports.

ARRESTED FOR HOUSE-BURNING.—Master Herbert Smith, a lad 10 years of age, was before Justice Sherman on Friday charged with setting fire to Mr. Rugg's buildings last month. On a partial hearing the case was continued. The lad is held for his appearance in the sum of $200, and Mr. Adams became his bondsman. Dewey & Noble for the State, Bailey, Davis and Adams for respondent.

RUFFIANISM.—Mr. Excs Dumas of this village was knocked down and severely injured, on Friday night, by one Edward Rivor, who has been engaged in digging Corporation wells in this village, for the past summer. It seems that Dumas had been spending the evening with Mr. Jo. G. Moss, at Lewis Bros. Store of which Moss is the foreman in the shoe Manufacturing department and about 9:30 p. m. they both started for home. In passing the saloon kept by Edgar Minor on Main Street, the first door north of the County Jail, Rivor came out and without any words or provocation fell upon Dumas, knocked off his hat and felled him with a heavy blow and pounded him after he was down. Rivor immediately made his escape and all efforts to make his arrest have thus far proved futile. The injured man was taken home and was found to have received severe bruises about the head, and internal injuries also. To-day he has been suffering with hemorrhage of the eyes, but it is not thought that his injuries will prove fatal. The assassin and the victim had been upon the best of terms so far as is known, for many years, and no reasons are given for this unprovoked attack. It is said that Rivor was greatly under the influence of liquor at the time, and had attempted to provoke a quarrel at two or three places during the evening. Minor, the keeper of the saloon who was present at the knock-down, was arrested the same evening and lodged in Jail. He was brought before Justice Sherman this for noon and was discharged from custody, no evidence appearing that he was a party to the assault.

The frequency with which these assaults, and deeds of ruffianism are occurring in our village, should lead fathers of the village and executive officers of the peace also, to the enquiry of what shall be done for our protection. If these things are not stopped, wherein does the safety of any citizen repose. Is it possible that the laws are administered with too great leniency?

REVIVAL.—A revival of religion is in progress in East Enosburgh, and considerable interest is manifested, several having arisen for prayer, and one professed conversion. Rev. J. F. Ferguson of Montgomery, and Rev. George H. Parker of East Franklin are holding a series of meetings in the place.

AN OLD COIN.—A hired man of Mr. Orville Bishop, of Fairfax, while digging potatoes, recently, dug up an old Spanish dollar dated 1723.

DE Forrest Hammond, of Franklin, has sold his farm of 240 acres in East Berkshire, situated north of and adjoining Hon. H. E. Royce's place, to David Coburn and Dolpus Paul for $15,000.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Charles Walker, of Chester, had his hand badly crushed last week by having it caught in the machinery of his cabinet shop.

A VERMONT CARPET-BAGGER.—In a Republican procession in Cincinnati, the other day, was an old man of eighty, one of the fathers of the city, who carried an old carpet-bag with the inscription: "A Vermont carpet-bagger-1898." That bag was the identical carpet-bag in which Captain Strong brought it all his worldly goods when he went to the then wilderness in 1805, and the old man who carried it was Captain Strong himself.

EDITORIAL PEDESTRIANISM.—Mr. George W. Brizee, late editor and proprietor of the Whitehall Times, started Monday noon from Troy on a pedestrian trip to New York city. George says he acquired his pedestrian qualifications while running after his creditors in the newspaper business.

Vermont Officers' Reunion Society.

The Re-union Society met agreeably to the call of the Executive Committee, at Montpelier, on Thursday, Oct. 22, 1868. The business meeting was held at the Court House at 10 o'clock a. m. Gen. W. Y. W. Ripley, President of the Society, called the meeting to order, and the Recording Secretary read the record of the previous annual meeting.

The following Committee on nominations was appointed:

1st Regt., Lieut. Col. P. T. Washburn; 2d Regt., Col. A. S. Tracy; 3d Regt., Col. T. O. Seaver; 4th Regt., Col. and Brevet Brig. Gen. Geo. P. Foster; 5th, Capt. B. R. Jenne; 6th, Capt. and Brevet Major, Chas. S. Shattuck; 7th Regt. not represented; 8th, Capt. L. M. Hutchins; 9th Regt., Lieut. Col. E. S. Stowell; 10th, Capt. A. B. Valentine; 11th, Capt. O. H. Austin; 12th, Lieut. B. J. Derby; 13th, Lt. G. S. Robinson; 14th, Capt. N. F. Dunshie; 15th, Lieut. J. M. Poland; 16th, Col. W. G. Veazey; 17th, Capt. E. J. Hartshorn; 1st Cavalry, Lt. Col. W. J. Cummings; 3d Battery, Lt. J. W. Marsh; Sharpshooters, Col. H. R. Stoughton.

On motion of Lieut. Pollard it was voted that an assessment of one dollar be collected by the Treasurer of each member to replenish the treasury.

Upon nomination of Lieut. G. G. Benedict, Maj.-Gen. Wm. Wells was appointed Marshal for the public exercises of the evening.

Gen. Stannard offered the following resolution: Resolved—That the Executive Committee of this Society, be authorized to designate the place and appoint the time for the annual meeting of this Society.

At an adjourned meeting of the Society held in the Court House at 6 p. m. the following officers were elected:

For President, Col. S. E. Pingree.
For Vice-Presidents, Bvt. Brig.-Gen. Geo. P. Foster, Col. E. Stowell.
For Executive Committee, Maj. J. Grout, Jr., Capt. P. E. Smith, Maj. J. A. Salsbury.
Recording Secretary, Jas. S. Peck.
Corresponding Secretary, G. G. Benedict.

After the conclusion of this business, the officers formed in procession and marched to the Hall of the House of Representatives, to listen to the oration by Gen. P. T. Washburn.

The proceedings at the State House were opened by a prayer by Chaplain D. C. Roberts; after which "The Star Spangled Banner" was finely given by the Montpelier Brass Band.

The oration was delivered by Gen. P. T. Washburn, who ably reviewed the several Vermont organizations in the field, but the lack of space forbids its appearance in our columns. At the close of the oration Col. Redfield Proctor of Rutland, read a poem, adapted to the occasion, well interspersed with both the mirthful and the pathetic.

Speeches were made by Senator Edmunds, Gov. Page, Hon. D. E. Nicholas and others.

Gen. Thomas, Judge Steele, Gen. Stannard, Gen. Geo. W. Grantley, and Gen. Grout were severally called upon. They answered to "roll-call," but declined to make extended remarks.

At a little after 10 o'clock, the assembly, to the number of about 350, sat down in Village Hall to an excellent supper, provided by the ladies of the Congregational Society of this place. Everything was well arranged, the supper gave general satisfaction.

After removing the cloth, the President, Gen. Ripley, announced Major William Rounds as toast-master of the occasion, who read the following regular toasts:

1. Vermont—the Nation's Index.—Always indicating correctly the progress and condition of the religious, political and social prosperity of the Union; truly in that constellation, which every American hopes will bespangle the civil sky of this continent forever, is she "the star that never sets."

Responded to by His Excellency Governor Page, ably.

2. The assembled Wisdom and Virtue of Vermont: The industry, prosperity, liberty and long-time honor of the State look to you for protection, suggestion and counsel.

Responded to by Lieut. Gov. Stephen Thomas in one of his usual vigorous speeches, and by Gen. G. W. Grantley in his customary felicitous manner.

3. The Union: Purchased and preserved at the cost of life, blood, and treasure.

May it encircle the wealth and freedom and intelligence of America.

May it endure while its eternal hills stand, the proudest monument of a soldier's sacrifice.

Responded to by Col. J. B. Mead and Lieut. Col. W. W. Grout.

4. Gettysburg.

Responded to by Col. W. G. Veazey.

5. Chapin's farm, Fort Harrison.

Responded to by Gen. Geo. J. Stannard, who was greeted with prolonged and tumultuous cheering.

6. The National Congress.

Responded to by Hon. Geo. F. Edmunds, Senator.

7. Cold Harbor.

Responded to by Gen. W. W. Henry and Col. S. E. Pingree.

8. Cedar Creek.

Responded to by Gen. Wm. Wells and Lieut. Willard Farrington.

9. The rank and file, without whose stubborn fighting their officers would have secured but few honors.

Responded to by Gen. George P. Foster.

10. The memory of the dead—those who gave their lives that the nation might live.

Received in silence, the band playing a dirge.

11. The Vermont Officers' Re-Union Society—its purpose, condition, and prospects.

Responded to by Lieut. G. G. Benedict.

Gen. Ripley at this point vacated the chair, which was taken by Col. S. E. Pingree, the new President of the Society.

12. The orator of the evening.

Responded to by Gen. P. T. Washburn, who, after a few remarks, presented to the Society the headquarters flag of the 6th corps, which, after the death of Gen. Sedgwick, came into the hands of Lt. Col. James H. Platt, now of Petersburg, Va., and had been by him presented to this society.

Col. Pingree accepted the flag and eloquently described "Uncle John" and the affection felt for him by the old Vermont Brigade.

Gen. Stannard offered the following sentiment:

The Orphans of our Fallen Heroes: Their claims upon our patriotism and humanity.

Responded to by Chaplain Mack.

On motion of Gen. Thomas, the thanks of the society were voted to the ladies of the Congregational Society for their kind attention, in addition to the excellent supper furnished by them.

A vote of thanks was also given to the band for their efficient services.

On motion of Gen. Thomas, the thanks of the society were tendered to Gen. Ripley for the able and courteous manner in which he has performed the duties of President of the society.

On motion of Gen. Ripley, after singing "America," the society adjourned.

Our report is condensed from the very full reports of the meeting in the Burlington Times of the 24th inst. The meeting was large, enthusiastic and at times the wildest enthusiasm prevailed. The tone of the meeting was decidedly in favor of our great captain, General Grant, as every one might expect.

WHAT MAKES YOUR HAIR SO BEAUTIFUL? MRS. S. A. ALLEN'S IMPROVED (new style) HAIR RESTORER OR DRESSING, (in one bottle.) Price One Dollar. Every Druggist sells it.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the suffering almost as much pain as the sufferer himself, and should receive immediate attention. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry speedily cures coughs, colds, influenza, sore throat, &c. It will always relieve consumption, and in many well attested cases it has effected a perfect cure.

THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.—The only real base burner. It is a well known fact that in a cooking stove with an elongated fire-box the fire will die out at each end, and a large quantity of dead coal will accumulate at these points. To prevent this in the American and to aid and make a uniform combustion through all parts of the fire-box, air is admitted into a hollow chamber at the top of the stove above the fire, and carried through this hollow heated chamber down to near the bottom of the fire-box at each end, and then admitted directly into the burning mass of coal. By this means a uniform combustion is obtained in all parts of the fire-chamber, and less coal consumed, and a more continuous fire can be kept than in any other stove. This new patented improvement is another great acquisition to this already world-renowned cooking stove, which is now on the Fair grounds only for exhibition, where it can be seen by all desirous of examining its many perfections, and is for sale by Warrant & Southworth, of this city, agents for Shear, Packard & Co., of Albany. [Rochester Democrat, Oct. 1st.]

For sale by D. M. Walker, St. Albans, Vt. 3d.

FULTON MARKET.—Just received, a nice lot of Dried Beef, Sugar Cured Hams, Bologna Sausage, Sweet Potatoes, Tomatoes, Peaches, Water Melons, and Musk Melons. dtf-91.

RENE'S Pain-Killing Magic Oil is the best thing to use for frost bites, chilblains, burns, scalds, bruises, contusions, and other painful troubles you ever tried. "It works like a charm." d&w.

Quality and quantity are the two desirable attendants of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." The bottles are neither corked, thimbled, nor the preparation itself a worthless compound of deleterious minerals, as has been proved by the Award Committee of the N. H. State Agricultural Society. [Dorchester Enquirer.] d&w.

For many years the Piano Forte has held unquestioned monopoly; but a growing taste for those orchestral effects in playing which the Piano cannot render, has turned attention to the Organ. Cheapness, portableness, and convenience of manipulation are also advantages in the American Organs, as made by Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston, which eminently recommend them for home, school, and chapel use. A day or two since we visited the new extensive manufactory of the above-named instruments, on Boston Neck, and were surprised at the vast amount of labor in operation, and the completeness of the appliances in use, from the heavy machinery which cuts the stock, to the delicate apparatus which fashions the key work and action. Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith are regarded as the best reed Organ manufacturers in the world, and although able to turn out one hundred instruments a week, they have found difficulty in filling orders, which come from all parts of the country. None who hear these popular instruments, with their round, sonorous, sympathetic and expressive tones, are surprised at the favor with which they are regarded by leading music men.
